

Transition Supports

While youth with and without disabilities travel through their transition years there are many road blocks and challenges that arise. The following information is available to assist you in determining the appropriate supports available to youth with disabilities and how you can assist them in traveling through the system.

Benefits Planning for Youths with Disabilities

The guide helps those assisting youth with disabilities navigate the range of state and federal government programs and benefits for people with disabilities in the United States.

Breaking Down Technological Barriers

This InfoBrief describes assistive technology and accessible information and gives policymakers information on federal and state accessibility legislation, laws and requirements.

Building an Infrastructure to Serve Youth

This short cut provides readers with information on how to provide cross-agency cooperation to maximize available expertise and leverage funding streams. This document includes best-practices and an action plan to assist organizations in getting started.

Financial Literacy Information For Young People With Disabilities

This InfoBrief describes the federal and state initiatives that provide financial literacy information for young people with disabilities to learn how to save money and build assets.